Call 211 Wisconsin System Assisting Oneida County

211 is a proven partner to assist with natural and man-made disasters and public health emergencies by providing easy access to information and ongoing connection to needed services. The 211 Wisconsin System can play three pivotal roles in emergent situations: public messaging, resource referrals and situational awareness.

Oneida County residents can phone dial 211 to receive up-to-date real time resource information during the current COVID-19 situation.

211 Wisconsin provides 24-7 information on health and human service needs and can answer many questions regarding COVID-19. If you have any questions, please dial 211.
